"Very thoughtful and pragmatic." Career Counselor

"Applicable for all of the consumers on our caseload." Non-Profit

"Approach is positive and builds on …strengths." Career Counselor

"Concrete examples ...make factual information easier to apply and remember." Vocational Rehabilitation

"Excellent presentation filled with thought provoking information and practical solutions. Would travel again for one of Barbara's presentations." Non-Profit

This seminar is designed specifically for career counselors, coaches, vocational rehabilitation and transition specialists, and other professionals who want to be better equipped to guide these students and clients. You will learn:

- How individuals with Asperger's Syndrome think, and the impact of communication, sensory, and executive function difficulties in the workplace
- Why occupational choices should not be based on interests
- Four steps to finding the right job match
- Establishing rapport, dealing with unrealistic expectations, developing manageable job search strategies, disclosure and accommodations

Early Registration Discount Expires March 3!

(Special rates for Virginia Career Development Assoc. Members)

Information is presented using non-technical language, and illustrated with examples from the presenter's extensive experience coaching hundreds of adults with Asperger's Syndrome and similar autism spectrum profiles. Content is for professionals who assist individuals seeking competitive (not sheltered or supported) employment. Information and registration at www.forwardmotion.info.
