AIA Nevada Emerging Professionals Leadership Award

The AIA Nevada Emerging Professionals Leadership Award is a new addition to our AIA Nevada Distinguished Service Awards program. This award was established to recognize AIA Emerging Professional members (those licensed less than 10 years, or Associate Members) who are committed to advancing the profession, their Chapter and whose actions have helped to elevate and improve their communities. The intent of the award is to invest in our state's youth, enriching future leaders not only within in the Institute but in the profession at large. The award provides funding for the recipient to attend the annual Grassroots or Leadership Conference and the AIA Western Mountain Conference each year in order to further their knowledge of the Institute and to develop their knowledge and skills as leaders for the future.

The AIA Nevada Silver Medal

This is the highest honor that the AIA Nevada Chapter can bestow upon an individual architect. It is given in recognition of the most distinguished service to the profession of architecture and acknowledgement of a significant body of work that has had a lasting influence on the theory and practice of architecture in the state of Nevada.

Eligibility

Any AIA Nevada architect, living or dead, is eligible to receive the Silver Medal. No more than one Silver Medal shall be awarded in any year.

Criteria

Candidates will be evaluated on how well they meet the program criteria which may include:

- The candidate shall have evidenced a positive effect on the profession of architecture.
- The candidate shall have influenced the direction of the profession of architecture.
- The candidate shall be an individual whose contributions have consistently been directed toward the future as well as respectful of the past.
- The candidate shall have evidenced the ability to transcend specific areas of expertise or shall have made connections between areas.
- The candidate shall be widely recognized for the quality of his or her work and services by those who practice architecture and by members of the design and architecture community.

Additional Considerations

Throughout the submission, where applicable and to the extent possible, you are encouraged to highlight any aspects of the candidate's work or life experience that may reflect contributions of special interest to AIA Nevada, to the Institute, its members and the architecture profession. These might include such areas as diversity, sustainability, or the mentoring of emerging professionals.

Submittal Instructions:

All submittals must be provided on a USB Drive. Submittal must be printed as a PDF file, with pages being 8.5"x11" (portrait or landscape orientation). USB Drives must be received by AIA Nevada by 5:00PM on Wednesday, October 25, 2017.

Each Submittal must contain the following materials and must be presented in the order requested:

- A one-page nomination letter that summarizes the contributions made and addresses the criteria for the award.
- A brief biography of the Candidate not to exceed two pages.
- A list of the Candidate's achievements not to exceed two pages.
- Miscellaneous material: clippings, articles, etc. not to exceed three pages
- Three examples of the Candidate's architectural work with three images for each example represented, ideally including a site plan, an exterior, and interior image of each project (3 pages maximum for a total of 9 pages).
- A maximum of 3 one-page letters of support are required as a part of the submission.
- Letters should be explicit in the recommendation and should address the criteria for the award. These letters are to be included on the USB Drive as a part of the PDF file.

The AIA Nevada Architecture Firm Of The Year Award

This is the highest honor that the AIA Nevada Chapter can bestow upon an architecture firm. It is awarded to recognize a firm that has consistently produced distinguished architecture; has shown a commitment to the American Institute of Architects and the profession of architecture; and has been of service to the community in which they are located.

Eligibility

Any architecture firm, located in Nevada, whether an individual or an organization of architects, is eligible for this recognition. Continuing collaboration among the individuals of the firm should be the guiding principal force in consistently producing distinguished architecture. The firm should also have evidenced a commitment to elevating the profession of architecture and to being of service to the community in which they are located. No more than one Architecture Firm of the Year shall be given in any year.

Criteria

Candidates will be evaluated on how well they meet the program criteria which may include:

- The firm shall have evidenced a cumulative effect on the profession of architecture.
- The firm shall have influenced the direction/profession of architecture.
- The firm's work shall be a product of a collaborative environment that has consistently directed itself toward the future as well as respectful of the past.
- The firm shall have evidenced the ability to transcend specific areas of expertise or shall have made connections between areas.
- The firm shall be widely known by the quality of its projects and services to the community by those who practice architecture and by members of the design and architecture community.

Additional Considerations

Throughout the submission, where applicable and to the extent possible, you are encouraged to highlight aspects of the firm's work or experiences that may reflect contributions of special interest to AIA Nevada, to the Institute, its members and the architecture profession. These might include such areas as diversity, sustainability, or the mentoring of emerging professionals.

Eligibility

Architect members of AIA Nevada who have been licensed to practice architecture for less than ten years, or who have graduated after June 2007 are eligible to be nominated. The term "Young Architect" has no reference to the age of the nominees. Candidates must be nominated by an AIA member or nominating group. Jurors may award more than one Young Architect Award if they feel it is merited.

Criteria

Candidates will be evaluated on how well they meet the program criteria which may include:

- The candidate shall have evidenced a cumulative effect on the profession of architecture.
- The candidate shall have influenced the direction/profession of architecture.
- The candidate shall be an individual whose contributions to the profession of architecture have consistently been directed toward the future as well as respectful of the past.
- The candidate shall have evidenced the ability to transcend specific areas of expertise or shall have made connections between areas.
- The candidate shall be widely recognized for the quality of his or her work and services by those who practice architecture and by members of the design and architecture community.

Additional Considerations

Throughout the submission, where applicable and to the extent possible, you are encouraged to highlight aspects of the firm's work or experiences that may reflect contributions of special interest to AIA Nevada, to the Institute, its members and the architecture profession. These might include such areas as diversity, sustainability, or the mentoring of emerging professionals.

Submission Instructions

All submissions should be provided on a USB Drive. Submittal must be built as a PDF file, pages being 8.5"x11" (portrait or landscape orientation).

Each USB Drive shall contain the following materials and must be presented in the order requested:

- A one-page nomination letter that summarizes the contributions made and addresses the criteria for the award.
- A brief biography of the Candidate not to exceed two pages.
- A list of the Candidate's achievements not to exceed two pages.
- Miscellaneous material: clippings, articles, etc. not to exceed three pages.
- A maximum of 5 examples of the Candidate's work and three images for each example represented, hopefully including a site plan, an exterior, and interior image (3 pages each for a maximum of 15 pages).
- A maximum of 5 one-page letters of support are required as a part of the submission. Letters should be explicit in their recommendation and should address the criteria for the award. Letters are included on the USB Drive.

AIA Nevada Distinguished Service Awards

2017 Leadership Award

Past Leadership Award Recipient

- 2015 Glenn Nowak, AIA
Mercedes dela Garza, AIA
- 2016 Rhys Williams, Assoc. AIA

The AIA Nevada Emerging Professionals Leadership Award

The AIA Nevada Emerging Professionals Leadership Award is a new addition to our AIA Nevada Distinguished Service Awards program. This award was established to recognize AIA Emerging Professional members (those licensed less than 10 years, or Associate Members) who are committed to advancing the profession, their Chapter and whose actions have helped to elevate and improve their communities. The intent of the award is to invest in our state's youth, enriching future leaders not only within in the Institute but in the profession at large.

The award provides funding for the recipient to attend the annual Grassroots or Leadership Conference and the AIA Western Mountain Conference each year in order to further their knowledge of the Institute and to develop their knowledge and skills as leaders for the future.

Eligibility

Candidates for this award must be members of the American Institute of Architects, -- newly licensed (less than 10 years), Associate Members or AIAS students, who evidence a strong commitment to the profession and who have taken an active leadership role in their Chapter and their community.

Criteria

Candidates will be evaluated on how well they meet the program criteria which may include:

- The candidate shall have evidenced a cumulative effect on their community.
- The candidate shall have influenced the development of the built environment in a positive manner.
- The candidate shall be an individual whose contributions in their community have consistently been directed toward the future as well as respectful of the past.
- The candidate shall have evidenced the ability to transcend specific areas of expertise or shall have made connections between areas.
- The candidate shall be widely recognized for the quality of his or her work and services by those who practice architecture and by members of the design and architecture community.

Additional Considerations

Throughout the submission, where applicable and to the extent possible, you are encouraged to highlight any aspects of the candidate's work or life experience that may reflect contributions to areas of special interest to their community or to a specific group or cause. These might include such areas as diversity, sustainability, natural resources, or other areas of community interest.

Intern Compensation Disclaimer

At a National AIA Board of Directors meeting on May 3-4, 1995, a policy was adopted:

“Any architect desiring to promote or be promoted by the AIA through awards programs, publications, speaking engagements, elected or appointed office or admission to Fellowship, must declare that they themselves and/or their firm does not employ unpaid intern architects in their professional practice.”

The AIA Nevada and the AIA Las Vegas Board of Directors has also adopted this policy. An owner or manager of your firm must sign this form and include a pdf file of it on your submittal USB.

All photos, artwork and materials included in your submittal packet for the 2017 AIA Nevada Distinguished Service Awards program become the property of AIA Nevada archives and will not be returned. Please do not send original materials. The photos, artwork and materials included in this submittal will be exhibited to the public, included on websites and published in various Chapter and University publications. Permission to use these materials is hereby granted by signature below.

Duplicate this form and execute a separate release form for each owner or copyright holder of the images submitted. This release applies to all photos, artwork and materials listed on the reverse side of this form.

The owners and copyright holders of the photographs, slides, plans, graphics and materials submitted to the AIA Nevada, a Chapter of the American Institute of Architects, in connection with the 2017 AIA Nevada Distinguished Service Awards Program, hereby grant permission to AIA Nevada and the UNLV Architecture Studies Library to use and reproduce this material for the following purposes.

1. Editorial and professional/educational use in all media.
2. Publication on electronic media including AIA Chapter websites and UNLV Architecture Studies Library websites.
3. Publication in AIA and non-AIA publications initiated by AIA Nevada (exclusive of advertising or other commercial use) or to announce the awards, and in all magazines and publications used to educate the public about architectural design.

If materials submitted are copyrighted, the copyright notice and credits must appear on this form. AIA Nevada will include credit and any notice of copyright on all photographs, artwork or materials that AIA Nevada itself publishes and will include this information with all material distributed to other media or retained in the AIA Nevada archives. However, AIA Nevada will not be responsible for the failure of other persons or media to identify this information in their publications.

No royalties or other amounts shall be payable to AIA Nevada or to the UNLV Architecture Studies Library for use of these materials.
