

Developing today's leaders to prevent tomorrow's disease

The AIM Leadership Institute is dedicated to the promotion of effective immunization program management through collaboration, education and creativity to assure program compliance and increase and sustain high immunization coverage

