Time to Nominate a Leader is Running Out...

Only a week is left to recognize that special individual who made a positive impact on you, an organization or the industry. Perhaps it was a boss, a mentor, or even a peer. Whatever position they held, the value of the experience in working with them was significant.

It's time to say thank you...What better way to recognize these contributions than with a nomination for a 2018 AIM or AIM North America Award?

Nomination is easier than ever, takes only a few minutes and requires just a single click below.
