

Columbia Basin College, located in Pasco, Washington and selected as one of only twelve community colleges nationwide to be a part of the Aspen Institution's Frontier Set Program, is welcoming applications for Dean for Math & Science.

The Dean will be responsible for administering and coordinating comprehensive programs of instruction for those disciplines. This position will plan and develop the instructional objectives for the division and serve as the administrative head of the respective area.

To view the position description or apply, please visit our website at <https://www.columbiabasin.edu/jobs>. CBC is an EEO/AA Employer. Protected groups are encouraged to apply.