

Awards Committee Awards Selection Procedure [Approved by Council 1/19/2017]

1. ASDIN provides three Awards
  - Gerald Beathard Award
Presented in recognition of teaching excellence, scholarly activity, and clinical excellence
  - Lifetime Achievement Award
Presented in recognition to overall contribution to interventional nephrology
  - Distinguished Service Award
Presented to individual who has provided distinguished service to ASDIN
2. ASDIN will open nominations for each of the awards to the membership of ASDIN. Members will nominate candidates for specific awards with a 200-word or less narrative supporting the nomination.
3. The Awards Committee will curate the nominations and will complete a roster of nominations for each award and provide the recommendations to the Council for consideration.
4. Council will make final selections for the award(s).
5. Scrutiny of a nominee can stop at any level.
6. The Award Committee will have the option of providing one selection or a roster per award category.
7. Not all awards will necessarily be awarded each year
8. The recipient of the Gerald Beathard Award will serve as the Beathard Lecturer and present the keynote presentation on a topic of their choosing at the Scientific Meeting at which they will receive the award.
9. All award recipients will be notified in advance of their selection.
10. The awards nomination process will begin in 2017 for presentation at the 2018 Scientific Meeting. In lieu of 2017 award presentations, the Awards Committee will review the process with the membership.
