

Excellence in Education

This is awarded to a clinical agency or institution of higher education that has distinguished itself through outstanding contribution(s) to the recreational therapy profession.

Qualifications (must meet at least three of the following):

- A. Developed a program promoting recreational therapy as a profession and field of study to potential students
- B. Made unique and significant contribution(s) to the body of knowledge of recreational therapy
- C. Developed exceptional instruction material(s) for recreational therapy education
- D. Developed outstanding curriculum material(s) for professional preparation in recreational therapy
- E. Encouraged student participation in:
  - a. Recreational therapy, through hosting functions to introduce students to professionals
  - b. ATRA or chapter affiliates
- F. Provided students with quality professional experience in recreational therapy