

Belmont University Online Alumni Community Acceptable Use Policy

The information contained within Belmont's online alumni community is intended exclusively for purposes related to university-related programs only. The use of names, addresses or other information by any individual for non-approved activities is strictly prohibited. Failure to abide by this policy may result in suspension from the online community. By registering on this site, I agree to use any information provided for approved purposes only and understand that the use of the information for non-approved commercial, personal, or political purposes is strictly prohibited.

To report misuse of this policy, please email:

Anna Garrett
Assistant Director of Alumni Relations
garretta@mail.belmont.edu