Kurt Steinkrauss To Receive Boston Estate Planning Council's Excellence Award at May 23 Annual Gala

WAKEFIELD, MASS. – Feb., 27, 2018 – The Boston Estate Planning Council (BEPC) has selected Kurt Steinkrauss, a member of the Private Client and Corporate & Securities Sections of Mintz, Levin, Cohn, Ferris, Glovsky, and Popeo, P.C., as the recipient of the 2018 BEPC Excellence Award. Steinkrauss' substantial contributions in estate planning, general corporate matters, and employment matters make him deserving of the highest honor that BEPC can give to a member of the estate planning community.

Steinkrauss will be honored at the Council's Annual Gala, which will take place on May 23, 2018, at the Boston Park Plaza. The event will be hosted by Anthony Everett, the Emmy Award-winning co-anchor of WCVB-TV's "Chronicle." Both BEPC members and non-members may register to attend. Individual tickets and tables of ten are available.

In his estate planning practice, Steinkrauss assists individuals and families in planning and carrying out tax-efficient transfers of wealth, asset distribution, trust administration, charitable gift planning, and business succession. In his corporate work, he works closely with family businesses, start-ups, and emerging companies in a variety of sectors. He specializes in advising clients on mergers and acquisitions, corporate governance, and succession planning. Steinkrauss also counsels executives on employment agreements, SEC issues, stock options, and deferred compensation matters in his employment work.

Steinkrauss serves on a number of boards of non-profit organizations, and he is a frequent lecturer for several organizations. Steinkrauss is also a very active member of his community, participating in volunteer work and staying involved in other philanthropic areas.

Before joining Mintz Levin, Steinkrauss was a tax consultant at Arthur Andersen LLP. Before that, he served as a law clerk for the Estate and Gift Tax Division of the Internal Revenue Service. He earned his Bachelor of Science degree, cum laude, from Boston College; his Doctor of Jurisprudence degree, magna cum laude, from Suffolk University Law School, and his Master of Laws degree in Taxation from Boston University School of Law.

Annual Gala

Gala attendees will enjoy a wide range of events throughout the evening, including a pre-event networking cocktail reception, a special dinner featuring the BEPC Excellence Award ceremony, and concluding with a champagne and dessert reception – all of which are excellent opportunities to network with BEPC members and guests.

The evening's activities are underwritten by BEPC's generous Premium sponsors:

About BEPC

The Boston Estate Planning Council (BEPC) is a multi-disciplinary community of over 700 estate and wealth planning professionals. The Council provides educational programs and networking opportunities to help its members build and strengthen relationships, learn about ideas and strategies, and share thought leadership.

The Boston Estate Planning Council is one of the oldest and largest interdisciplinary estate planning councils in the country, tracing its roots back to 1930. The Council is an active affiliate of the National Association of Estate Planners & Councils (NAEPC), which has honored BEPC with an inaugural Council of Excellence Award for the last three consecutive years.
