

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Commercial Law League of America (CLLA) Appoints New Management Company

Rolling Meadows, IL – April 16, 2018 The Commercial Law League of America, the leading organization of collections, creditors' rights and bankruptcy professionals, today announced they have retained a new association management company to run the day-to-day operations of the organization. Effective April 16, 2018, Tollview Management Group, Rolling Meadows, IL, will assume all operational duties for CLLA including the planning and execution of annual conferences, publication support services, membership support services and financial management, among other responsibilities.

After a formal RFP process including interviews of management company finalists, it was determined that Tollview Management Group best fit into the ideals and culture of CLLA and was awarded the assignment. The group has a long history of successful association management. "As President of the Commercial Law League of America I am excited with the prospect of our association with our new management company. I envision at great synergy with Tollview Management Group as the League continues to revitalize and encompass new areas of service for our members," said Marc Bressler.

The Commercial Law League of America is a respected organization of attorneys and other experts in credit and finance actively engaged in the field of commercial law, bankruptcy and insolvency. Since 1895, The CLLA has been associated with the representation of creditor interests, while at the same time seeking fair, equitable and efficient administration of bankruptcy cases for all parties in interest. The phone number will continue to be the same, 312-240-1400, the Executive Vice President, Phil Lattanzio, can be reached directly at 847-483-6477. For more information on the CLLA, please visit www.CLLA.org.