

LAURA PIRIE

PRINCIPAL – PIRIE ASSOCIATES ARCHITECTS

Laura Pirie is principal of Pirie Associates Architects in New Haven CT, an architecture, interiors, landscape, and urban design practice. The firm creates mission-driven environments that empower people and communities to take what they do to the next level. Their innovative approach centers on demystifying the design process and engaging clients more deeply than is traditional. Clients describe working in this way as transformational. The results are environments that serve as active collaborators in the client’s mission and catalysts for change. The award-winning practice is known for its high degree of craft, sensitivity to occupant health and well-being, and timeless design solutions that evoke a spiritual-like connection to place and materials. Laura is a Lecturer in Architecture at Yale University and is co-founder of Conscious Pioneer, a wellness and personal growth organization that uses ancient sites in North and South America as classrooms for creativity and leadership development.
