

CUE Member Benefits

CUE is the only single purpose employers' association assisting companies in maintaining positive employee relations with no need for third party representation. Our many benefits include:

Two conferences a year with a variety of speakers and discussion leaders that focus on:

- Best practices of organizations related to positive employee relations
- Personal experiences of events in organizations and the implications for others (all employee relations topics included)
- Legal updates from the LLAC (Labor Lawyers Advisory Committee) on the latest from the Supreme Court, NLRB and case law
- Networking opportunities with colleagues with similar interests

CUE News Updates – includes a variety of electronic newsletters and alerts designed to keep CUE members up to date on the latest developments in the area of positive employee relations as it pertains to remaining union-free. Offerings include a weekly headline update, breaking news alerts, monthly and quarterly newsletters.

Webinars - From time to time CUE hosts webinars on current ER/LR Labor Law topics. These webinars are at no cost to member companies and usually feature a member of the LLAC and/or CCAC.

Labor Lawyers Advisory Committee – A group of nationally prominent attorneys with years of expertise in labor and employment law keep the members advised of legal developments and practical advice. They provide the Legal Alert Quarterly newsletter.

CUE Consultants Advisory Committee- A group of nationally prominent consultants specializing in employee and labor relations. They actively participate in conference presentations and conduct the annual Labor Activity Survey Report.

Website – www.cueinc.com the site contains conference information, The People of CUE, web sites of interest, product catalog, and an archive of newsletters.

Publications - More than 60 different publications are available that are in the following categories:

- Studies in Employee Relations – A wide variety of member experiences and Recommendations
- Training of supervisors – Remaining Union-Free, A Supervisor's Guide, Union-Free 101 and the Supervisor's Guide on Union Activities are the three most popular in this category
- Audits – The ELLA manual (Employment-Labor Law Audit)

Videos - CUE is a distributor of a variety of videos produced by various vendors that support supervisory training and employee orientation.

Member Run and Non-Profit - Four additional committees provide support for the programs of CUE: Program Committee, Membership Committee, Information Services Committee, and the Product Development Committee.