ANTHEM COLLEGE INSTRUCTOR RECEIVES STATE AWARD

Anthem College in Orlando takes home top award from the Florida Association of Postsecondary Schools and Colleges

ORLANDO, FL – Aug. 11, 2011 – Jeff Walters of Anthem College in Orlando has received top honors from the Florida Association of Postsecondary Schools and Colleges (FAPSC), a statewide organization representing more than 200 career-oriented schools.

Walters, an instructor in the school's X-ray program, was named Faculty Member of the Year for outstanding work at a degree-granting, accredited career college. The award, which is given out to one recipient each year, was presented at the FAPSC Annual Conference in August.

"Jeff Walter's day doesn't begin and end with his classes. He has assisted a student with funeral arrangements for his mother. He identified vision impairment in a student and helped obtain funds to pay for glasses. He works late to tutor. This man cares and it shows. He has a consistent retention record of more than ninety percent of his students. He goes the extra mile," said Kathy Mizereck, executive director of FAPSC.

Fourteen annual awards were selected by a panel and handed out during the FAPSC Annual Conference in South Florida attended by more than 460 administrators and faculty members.

The Florida Association of Postsecondary Schools and Colleges (FAPSC) works on behalf of all Florida's degree granting and non-degree granting career schools and colleges. Licensed by the state, these schools educate and prepare more than 379,000 students each year for employment in more than 200 occupational fields.
