MIAMI, FL – Aug. 11, 2011 – Florida Career College in West Palm Beach has received two top honors from the Florida Association of Postsecondary Schools and Colleges (FAPSC), a statewide organization representing more than 200 career-oriented schools.

Lauren Page of Florida Career College took home the 2011 Admissions Administrator of the Year award, and Kathleen Baretela received the Career Services Administrator of the Year award. The presentations were made at the FAPSC Annual Conference in August.

“The dedication and integrity of these individuals speak volumes for the Florida Career College in West Palm Beach. Their enthusiasm motivates students and colleagues alike. Most importantly, they find ways for students to reach their goals,” said Kathy Mizereck, executive director of FAPSC.

Fourteen annual awards were selected by a panel and handed out during the FAPSC Annual Conference in South Florida attended by more than 460 administrators and faculty members.

The Florida Association of Postsecondary Schools and Colleges (FAPSC) works on behalf of all Florida’s degree granting and non-degree granting career schools and colleges. Licensed by the state, these schools educate and prepare more than 379,000 students each year for employment in more than 200 occupational fields.
