HOMESTEAD, FL – Aug. 10, 2012 – Dade Medical College in Homestead has received top honors from the Florida Association of Postsecondary Schools and Colleges (FAPSC), a statewide organization representing more than 200 career-oriented schools.

Michael Lemus took home the 2012 Gail Benjamin Student Services Administrator of the Year award, which was presented at the FAPSC Annual Conference. The award is given out to one recipient each year.

“Michael is smart, loyal and committed to serving his students and staff members, while also giving back to the community,” said Kathy Mizereck, executive director of FAPSC.

Fifteen annual awards were selected by a panel and handed out during the FAPSC Annual Conference in South Florida attended by administrators and faculty members from across the state.

The Florida Association of Postsecondary Schools and Colleges (FAPSC) works on behalf of all Florida’s degree granting and non-degree granting career schools and colleges. Licensed by the state, these schools educate and prepare more than 379,000 students each year for employment in more than 200 occupational fields.
