Fortis Institute in Pensacola takes home top award from Florida Association of Postsecondary Schools and Colleges

PENSACOLA, FL – Sept. 16, 2013 – Fortis Institute in Pensacola has received top honors from the Florida Association of Postsecondary Schools and Colleges (FAPSC), a statewide organization representing private career schools.

Kathaleen Cole of Fortis Institute in Pensacola took home the 2013 Administration & Management Administrator of the Year award, which was presented at the FAPSC Annual Conference held recently in South Florida. The award is given out to one recipient each year.

“Her caring demeanor and ‘do the right thing for the student’ leadership philosophy is what has allowed her campus to not only meet expectations but surpass them,” said Curtis Austin, executive director of FAPSC.

FAPSC has been the voice of Florida’s career schools since 1956. The association of more than 250 members works on behalf of the more than 1,000 licensed private career schools and colleges in Florida that prepare 400,000 students each year for employment in more than 200 occupational fields by offering degree programs, certification and training.

Fortis Institute offers training programs in nursing, healthcare and skilled trades.
