FULL SAIL UNIVERSITY RECEIVES TWO STATE AWARDS

Full Sail University in Winter Park Garners Graduate, Faculty Awards from the Florida Association of Postsecondary Schools and Colleges

WINTER PARK, FL – Aug. 10, 2012 – Full Sail University in Winter Park has received two top honors from the Florida Association of Postsecondary Schools and Colleges (FAPSC), a statewide organization representing more than 200 career-oriented schools.

Graduate Angie Mejia was given the Graduate of the Year honor while Lester Frederick took home the 2012 Faculty Member of the Year for a degree granting accredited institution. The presentations were made at the FAPSC Annual Conference.

“Winning both a graduate and faculty award speaks volumes about the stellar academics at Full Sail University. Both awards are a tribute to the fundamentals of success – a promising career for a graduate and an instructor who inspires excellence,” said Kathy Mizereck, executive director of FAPSC.

Fifteen annual awards were selected by a panel and handed out during the FAPSC Annual Conference in South Florida attended by administrators and faculty members from across the state.

The Florida Association of Postsecondary Schools and Colleges (FAPSC) works on behalf of all Florida’s degree granting and non-degree granting career schools and colleges. Licensed by the state, these schools educate and prepare more than 379,000 students each year for employment in more than 200 occupational fields.
