ITT TECHNICAL INSTITUTE RECEIVES STATE AWARD

ITT Technical Institute in Bradenton takes home top award from the Florida Association of Postsecondary Schools and Colleges

BRADENTON, FL – Aug. 10, 2012 – ITT Technical Institute in Bradenton has received top honors from the Florida Association of Postsecondary Schools and Colleges (FAPSC), a statewide organization representing more than 200 career-oriented schools.

Jason Smolen of ITT Technical Institute in Bradenton took home the 2012 Administrator of the Year in Education and Academics award, which was presented at the FAPSC Annual Conference.

“This award honors all of the dedication and professionalism that Jason brings to his position that helps students succeed,” said Kathy Mizereck, executive director of FAPSC.

Fifteen annual awards were selected by a panel and handed out during the FAPSC Annual Conference in South Florida attended by administrators and faculty members from across the state.

The Florida Association of Postsecondary Schools and Colleges (FAPSC) works on behalf of all Florida’s degree granting and non-degree granting career schools and colleges. Licensed by the state, these schools educate and prepare more than 379,000 students each year for employment in more than 200 occupational fields.
