NEW HORIZONS COMPUTER LEARNING CENTERS WINS STATE AWARD

New Horizons Computer Learning Centers of South Florida takes home top award from the Florida Association of Postsecondary Schools and Colleges

MIAMI, FL – Aug. 10, 2012 – New Horizons Computer Learning Centers of South Florida has received top honors from the Florida Association of Postsecondary Schools and Colleges (FAPSC), a statewide organization representing more than 200 career-oriented schools.

The school was honored as the Non-Accredited Institution of the Year, which was presented at the FAPSC Annual Conference. The award is given out to one recipient each year.

“New Horizons Computer Learning Centers’ commitment is not only to their students but also to their community,” said Kathy Mizereck, executive director of FAPSC.

Fifteen annual awards were selected by a panel and handed out during the FAPSC Annual Conference in South Florida attended by administrators and faculty members from across the state.

The Florida Association of Postsecondary Schools and Colleges (FAPSC) works on behalf of all Florida’s degree granting and non-degree granting career schools and colleges. Licensed by the state, these schools educate and prepare more than 379,000 students each year for employment in more than 200 occupational fields.
