Virginia College in Tampa takes home top award from the Florida Association of Postsecondary Schools and Colleges

TAMPA, FL – Sept. 16, 2013 – Vicky Irizarry of Virginia College in Tampa has received top honors from the Florida Association of Postsecondary Schools and Colleges (FAPSC), a statewide organization representing private career schools.

Irizarry was the recipient of the 2013 Admissions Administrator of the Year Award, which was presented at the recent FAPSC Annual Conference in South Florida attended by administrators, faculty members and business leaders. The award is given out to one individual each year for his or her leadership, contributions and dedication to the association.

“Vicky is a perfect picture of a team player and an asset to the school’s leadership team because, particularly when it comes to students, she takes every challenge as her own responsibility and finds a resolution,” said Curtis Austin, executive director of FAPSC.

FAPSC has been the voice of Florida’s career schools since 1956. The association of more than 250 members works on behalf of the more than 1,000 licensed private career schools and colleges in Florida that prepare 400,000 students each year for employment in more than 200 occupational fields by offering degree programs, certification and training.

Virginia College offers degrees programs in business, health and paralegal studies.
