Faculty in the 3Rs Program will be required to relate to, and will serve as a role model to 14 year-old students. Youth is not a job requirement, but an ability to relate to young people is! Please explain why you believe you can successfully relate to the Grand Rapids Public School students, who will be served by this program:

One of the goals of the 3Rs Program is to improve diversity with judicial and law-related careers with faculty that (because of the issue to be addressed) may not be incredibly racially diverse. Please explain how you might add to the diversity of the faculty, and/or how you expect to add diversity to the students' experience:

Some students involved in the 3Rs Program are likely to have negative stereotypes of persons involved in the justice system. This job will require tolerance. Are you able to react to students in a positive way, even though they might perceive you negatively? Please explain:

One of our goals is to make this a fun experience for the student. Are you able to help us meet this goal?

Why do you want to be a part of the 3Rs Program?

The 3Rs Program depends upon the formation of a relationship between a small group of students and a single faculty mentor who is a law student or a member of the Bar. Are you prepared to build your professional or academic calendar around a monthly, hour-long commitment to the 3Rs Program?

In the event you are forced to miss a 3Rs session, are you willing to identify a recruited substitute from our approved list? This person must also bear the qualities and the commitment to the goals discussed above.
