

Rosemary O'Loughlin

Voya Financial

Vice President, Employee Relations

Rosemary O'Loughlin is Vice President of Employee Relations at Voya Financial. She is a versatile Human Resources practitioner with extensive experience providing leadership and consultation to business executives, line management and employees. She has held Generalist and Employee Relations roles in diverse and demanding business environments in manufacturing, financial services and healthcare organizations.

Rosemary's expertise includes employee relations, dispute resolution, performance management, coaching, mentoring, organizational transition and risk management.

She is a long-standing and active member of the HR Leadership Forum having previously served on the Membership Committee for a number of years.

Rosemary is committed to the development of emerging Human Resources professionals. While holding membership in the Human Resources Association of Central CT (HRACC) she served as Professional Development Chair and Advisory Council Member. Rosemary has also served as instructor of the Human Resources certification course at Saint Joseph University.

Rosemary earned a B.A. in Psychology from Wells College and an M.A. in Psychology from the University of Hartford and holds SPHR and SHRM-SCP certification.