

Victoria Funes is an Associate State Director in the communications team of AARP Florida, based in the South Florida (Doral) state office. She is the statewide communications and outreach lead and bilingual spokesperson for financial security, financial and consumer fraud and 50+ worker issues. Prior to AARP, she was with First Coast Service Options, a Medicare contractor, and worked on a state wide anti-fraud task force. She has a Masters in Management with a specialization in Healthcare Management, an undergraduate degree in Business Administration, a Certificate in Training and Human Resource Development, a Certificate in Hispanic Marketing, and is currently pursuing an Entrepreneurship and Innovation Certificate from Stanford University.