

IACP is going Electronic!

Attention IACP Member:

As of November 1, 2017, IACP is no longer mailing renewal letters and invoices. IACP is sending renewals via email.

Please log in to www.iacprx.org to make sure we have the most current information for our records including your primary email address.

IACP has included new fields within your profile that will help to better serve you and your patients while keeping our focus on our member-driven initiatives. (All of your profile information is confidential).

If you do not have your login information, please contact us.

Need help? Give us a call at (281) 933-8400!

You have received this FAX from the International Academy of Compounding Pharmacists because you were a member of our Academy. If you wish to remove or no longer receive FAX's, please call IACP at (281) 933-8400 or email us at IACPinfo@iacprx.org. IACP will take all reasonable steps to honor your request in a prompt manner.
