Description

The speaker will respond conversationally to three interview questions using personal experiences which illustrate a course of action and the outcome of the situation in order to practice real world interview skills.

Time Allotted

10 minutes - beginning when the speaker is called and ending when he is finished answering the third question.

Evaluation Criteria

Speakers will be evaluated on:

- Arriving on time
- Entering and exiting appropriately
- Exhibiting a confident and professional appearance
- Speaking conversationally and professionally
- Engaging the evaluator
- Adhering to the question
- Using an experience that was specific and relevant to the question
- Clearly outlining a course of action
- Stating a well defined outcome to the situation
- Giving a concise and complete response

- Staying within allotted time

Rules

- Notes or outside resources may not be accessed during the presentation.
- The speaker must answer the questions posed by the evaluator in the order in which they are presented.
- All speakers will receive the same three questions.
- Questions are randomly selected by ICCFS from those available on the ICC website and provided to tournament officials for each round.

Questions & Answers

Presentation

Q: How can I prepare for this event?

A: There are several ways you can prepare to effectively present yourself to the interviewer:

- Review the list of behavioral style interview questions below.
- Check out the websites below to learn how to answer interview questions in a way that will provide the best information to the interviewer in a timely manner. Keep in mind that the interviewer wants to know if you are the best person for the job and only knows what you tell him.

  - CareerServices.wayne.edu/behavioralquestions.pdf
- Practice answering the questions using the S.T.A.R. method (TheInterviewGuys.com) and timing your answers

Q: How should I begin and conclude the interview?

A: When the evaluator calls your name, enter the room, shake her hand, greet her, and then be seated. For example, “Good afternoon, Mr./Mrs. _____.”

When you are finished with the interview, stand, shake the evaluator’s hand and thank her for her time. For example, “Thank you for your time, Mr./Mrs. _____.”

If there is more than one evaluator, shake hands and use the greeting but do not address them by name.

Q: May I enter the room before my appointment time and stay after I finish speaking?

A: No. Speakers will only be present during their interview as is typical of a real interview.

Q: May I ask for an alternate question?

A: No. The speaker must answer the questions that are posed in the order they are given.

Q: Can I pass if I don’t have an answer to the question?

A: It is better to try to answer the question to the best of your ability.

Q: How will I know when my 10 minutes are up if there is no timekeeper?

A: The speaker is responsible for keeping his own time throughout the interview.

Q: What happens if I don't get to finish answering all the questions?

A: The evaluator will note that on the ballot and make any relevant comments. This may affect speaker ranking.

Q: Will the evaluator ask additional questions of his own?

A: No. The evaluator may interact nonverbally but may only ask questions from the list provided.

Q: What is the Question Code listed on my ballot?

A: The Question Code corresponds to the interview questions listed below. When reviewing your ballot, you can use the Question Code to locate the question you were asked.

Script Submission

Q: Do I need a script submission form?

A: No. There is no prepared presentation to submit but you must check in and verify you are participating in this event.

Speaker Instructions

1. The speaker will arrive before the appointed time and wait outside the room to be called.
2. The evaluator will call the speaker and begin timing.
3. The speaker will enter the room, greet the evaluator(s) and take the chair opposite the evaluator(s).
4. The speaker will be given a total of 10 minutes. No time signals will be given.
5. An evaluator (serving as the interviewer) will pose the first question and the speaker will respond.
6. When the speaker is finished speaking, the evaluator will pose the second question and the speaker will respond.
7. When the speaker is finished speaking, the evaluator will pose the third question and the speaker will respond.
8. When the speaker is finished speaking, the evaluator will note the time and report it on the ballot.
9. The evaluator will conclude the interview and the speaker will exit the room.

Evaluator Instructions

One evaluator will receive a list of questions and serve as the interviewer and timekeeper.

Each speaker is allotted 10 minutes for his/her interview. Time begins when the speaker is called at the door and ends when he/she finishes answering the third question. If the speaker is not at the door, the time still continues.

1. At the appointment time listed on the room roster, the evaluator will go to the door, call the speaker and begin timing.
2. Record the speaker's appointment time and the time the speaker is actually called on the ballot.
3. After the speaker is seated, the designated evaluator will pose the first question and write the Question Code in the first column of the bottom portion of the ballot.
4. The evaluator may interact with the speaker nonverbally (nod, smile, laugh, etc.) but may not ask additional questions.
5. While the speaker is answering the question, the evaluator may jot notes.
6. When the speaker is finished answering the first question, the next question on the list will be asked and the Question Code will be added to the second column.
7. When the speaker is finished answering the second question, the last question will be posed and the Question Code added to the third column.
8. When the speaker has finished, the evaluator will record the total time on the ballot.
9. After the last speaker has presented, the evaluator will complete comments on each ballot in the hospitality room and take the completed ballots to Ballot Return as soon as possible .

Timekeeper Instructions

- The evaluator will serve as timekeeper.
- The speaker is allotted 10 min to answer their 3 questions.
- Time begins when the speaker is called by the evaluator at the door.
- No time signals will be given.
- On the ballot, the evaluator will record the time when the speaker finished answering all the questions..
