O. Adedoyin Gomih appointed as Indiana State Bar Association treasurer

INDIANAPOLIS (Oct. 28, 2014) – O. Adedoyin “Doyin” Gomih, Merrillville, has been appointed as treasurer of the Indiana State Bar Association (ISBA) at its annual meeting in Indianapolis on Oct. 10. She was appointed by ISBA President Jeff R. Hawkins and her term will expire in October 2015.

Gomih is principal at her firm in Merrillville, Law Offices of Adedoyin Gomih. With an extensive business background, she practices in the areas of business and commercial law, business formation, personal injury, real estate transactions and employment law. She received her B.S. from the University of Ibadan, Nigeria in 1978; M.P.A. from Dalhousie University, Halifax, Nova Scotia, Canada in 1981; M.B.A. from Illinois Institute of Technology's Stuart School of Business in 1997; and her J.D. from Valparaiso University School of Law in 2006.

Doyin is an active member of the Indiana State, Lake County and Kimbrough (chair, CLE committee) bar associations. She is also a member of the National Employment Lawyers Association (Illinois & Indiana chapters) and the Women Lawyers Association. She currently serves on the board for South Shore Arts and is a former member of the Lake County Cancer Society.

Founded in 1896, the Indiana State Bar Association (ISBA) is the single largest legal organization in the state. With nearly 12,000 members, the ISBA serves and advocates on behalf of its members, their clients and the public interest as the independent voice of the legal profession. The ISBA's office is located in downtown Indianapolis. For more information about the State Bar, visit www.inbar.org.
