

1989 ITAA Fellow – Anna Jean Treece

Anna Jean Treece, Professor Emeritus and former Head of Textiles and Clothing Department, College of Home Economics, University of Tennessee, Knoxville, has made significant contributions to textiles and clothing over the years in her roles as a researcher and an administrator, as well as her work with graduate students. She influenced the total development of ACPTC where she has held many offices and committee responsibilities over the years.

After retirement she was involved in professional activities in Knoxville, TN, and later moved to a retirement village in Bristol Village, OH. (1914 – 2005)