

1989 ITAA Fellow – Anne Kernaleguen

Anne P. Kernaleguen, Executive Director, Claridge House Condominium, University of Alberta, received in 1984 the Specialist in Aging Certificate, an honor from the Institute of Gerontology at the University of Michigan. She is currently an apparel designer in the MacPhee Workshop where she is responsible for many exhibitions on Clothing for Special Needs. She is a noted speaker and author of a book in this area, an active leader in ACPTC, having served on the Futures Committee and as a past regional president. She has been noted for her desire for excellence which has consistently provided the drive and direction for achieving her own professional goals and guiding others toward the same achievement.