

1989 ITAA Fellow – Betty L. Feather

Betty L. Feather, Professor and State Extension Specialist of Textile and Apparel Management, University of Missouri, Columbia, has authored numerous articles in home economics related fields, authored the Best of Missouri's Hands, and is a reviewer for the Canadian Home Economics Journal. She is an innovator in clothing programming in a number of areas and has been instrumental in bridging the gap between the medical and social institutions which offer services for the post-mastectomy woman. She received the 1988 Provost's Award for Outstanding Achievement in Extension and Continuing Education as well as other major state awards for her excellence in extension