

1989 ITAA Fellow – Kitty Dickerson

Kitty G. Dickerson, Professor and Chair of Textile and Apparel Management Department, University of Missouri, Columbia, was recipient of the 1989 Faculty Award, University of Missouri Alumni Association, author of Textiles and Apparel in the International Economy; past Central Region President and current ACPTC President-elect; plus she has held numerous other leadership positions. Her interest in the international textiles and apparel industry as well as the structure and policy of international trade in textiles and apparel has expanded knowledge, stimulated interest, and provided a diffusion of related research efforts. Her research on the consumer's attitudes toward imported apparel served as the basis of the industry-wide multi-million dollar "Crafted with Pride in the U.S.A." campaign.