

1989 ITAA Fellow – Lois Dickey

Lois E. Dickey Professor Emeritus and former Chair of the Textiles and Clothing Department, The Ohio State University, has been a leader in National Omicron Nu and an active participant in ACPTC, AHEA, Tennessee HEA, The Costume Society of America, and the Fashion Group. In addition, she has served two terms as National ACPTC President, as Central Region ACPTC President, plus numerous leadership roles. She was instrumental in achieving international status for ACPTC and for development of the CTRJ. She has been identified as a caring individual who makes everyone feel very special.

She retired to Knoxville, TN, and enjoyed traveling and community activities, then moved to Fayetteville, NC, to live with her sister.