

1989 ITAA Fellow – Marilyn Horn

Marilyn J. Horn, Professor Emeritus, University of Nevada, Reno, was a past ACPTC Western Region and national President and is most noted for authoring The Second Skin which is viewed as a “classic” text in the field. Most recently she was recognized with AHEA’s Distinguished Service Award. She has pursued theory development and been a leader for others interested in theory development. Identified as a professional, she has been bold enough to play the “devil’s advocate” and has challenged scholars to think about future directions.
