

1989 ITAA Fellow – Mary Ellen Roach-Higgins

Mary Ellen Roach-Higgins, Professor Emeritus, University of Wisconsin, Madison, began teaching in 1942 and retired from teaching in 1984. She received the Professional Achievement Award from Iowa State University in 1982. She has authored and co-authored numerous articles. Among her many publications, Dr. Higgins has contributed entries to World Book Encyclopedia and Encyclopedia of Education. She has studied in Western Continental Europe, Greece, Crete, Italy, and Mexico. Among her numerous professional associations is ACPTC. She was National ACPTC President in 1977-78. Her interdisciplinary approach has used sociological and social psychological theories in a unique approach to the study of dress.