

1989 ITAA Fellow – Phyllis Touchie-Spect

Phyllis A. Touchie-Specht, Professor of Home Economics, Mt. San Antonio College, is a past Western Region ACPTC President. Her representation on the National Board has been crucial in ACPTC's recognition and increased participation from 2-year institutions. She has been active in the Costume Society of America, the Fashion Group, the Costume Council of the LA County Art Museum and AHEA. She is co-author of a textbook now in its fourth edition that has been adopted as a lower division text by institutions in every U.S. state and in several countries.
