

1989 ITAA Fellow – Shirley Friend

Shirley E. Friend, Professor and Chair, Department of Apparel, Textiles and Interior Design, North Dakota State University, is a former ACPTC National President and played an active role in the current restructuring process. Her research interests have led to her participation with the North central region Committee on Socio-Economic Analysis of Clothing Consumption. She has co-authored articles in this area and as an administrator she has participated in a wide range of workshops including communication skills, working with difficult people, and expanding your creative potential.