

1989 ITAA Fellow – Susan Kaiser

Susan B. Kaiser, Associate Professor, university of California at Davis, has served on the National ACPTC Board for 10 years and as Chair of the Futures Committee which provided leadership for the development of the current structure. She has contributed to the field of textiles and clothing as a productive researcher, dedicated teacher, noted textbook author and active ACPTC leader. She continues to take much needed theoretical approaches to the study of social perception in relation to dress. Words which describe Susan are risk taker, visionary, creative, implementer, negotiator, commitment, and integrator.
