

1991 ITAA Fellow – Jacky DeJonge

Jacky DeJonge is Professor and Dean, College of Human Ecology, University of Tennessee. Her contributions to ITAA and the field of textiles and clothing have been impressive. As administrator, researcher, teacher, extension specialist, and mentor to graduate students, she has demonstrated superior talent, ability, foresight and creativity. She is past president of ITAA and served as chairperson of both the Reorganization and Name and Mission committees.