

1991 ITAA Fellow – Oris Glisson

Oris Glisson is Emeritus Professor and former Head, Department of Clothing and Textiles, Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University. She is known as a superior administrator, teacher, builder, and as a pioneer in the profession and association that has become ITAA. She was the first honorary member of ACPTC. She is a warm human being and has been a role model for many of today's leaders and prominent members of the profession.