

Nominations are Open !

Announcement

The Louisiana Assisted Living Association (LALA) is seeking nominations of qualified individuals to serve on its Board of Directors. Board members represent LALA, and are advocates for its strategic plan, its mission and bylaw activities. The LALA board represents its membership as a whole united voice and is expected to reflect the various landscapes in which Louisiana Senior Livings operate, and advocate for and with LALA members.

Nominees/candidates must own, manage or be responsible for multiple locations for a LALA provider member, and must be in good standing with this association.

The LALA Board (not less than 5, not more than 9) will vet all nominees and determine placement onto the nomination ballot. The ballot will then be distributed ten days prior to the voting period with elections closing 14 days after it opens.

YOUR NEXT STEP

Applications for nomination must be received prior to release of the candidate ballot, for consideration.

ABOUT THE BOARD

LALA is a 501(c)(6) statewide association that brings senior living communities, residents and families together to advocate, educate and legislate for the communities it serves.

LALA seeks a wide spectrum of committed candidates representing Louisiana's senior living sector & Self-nominations are welcome.

Board members are expected to participate in all 4 scheduled quarterly board meetings including the option of two face to face meetings and two conference call meetings. Board terms are for (1) one year; individual board members may serve no more than five consecutive terms.

LALA Board Election Process

LALAs' Slate of Candidates for its Board is elected by designated (primary contacts) voters of the LALA provider membership.

Towards the end of this current year, ballots will be electronically delivered to LALA's primary contact members (as determined in the LALA community profile by a "primary contact" designation).

Voting will close within the designated date and election results notice will be sent to all members
