Little Meme was hit by a car and brought to Lowell Animal Control by a good samaritan. Animal Control brought Meme to Wignall Animal Hospital where she was admitted. Wignall Animal Hospital performed surgery for a broken pelvis and other injuries. After Meme's care was completed she was adopted by Pets In Need.

Last year the MVMA Charities, Inc. funded the care this little guy needed. We are thrilled that he now has a home and family.

PROJECT MAZUNTE 2014

A patient awaits care.

In February of 2014 Dr. Rich Rodger, along with volunteers from Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Michigan and California, traveled to Mexico to care for local animals as part of Project Mazunte.
