

MN GIS/LIS Consortium 2010 Annual Meeting

Annual Meeting

- ✦ The By-Laws require annual meeting of members
- ✦ Maintain non-profit 501 (c) 3 status with State and IRS
- ✦ Financial records open for review for any member –see a member of the board.

Serving the GIS Community

- ✦ Board represents your GIS user community by sector –2 year rotations
- ✦ Several openings available for 2010
- ✦ Involvement at the Committee level – newsletter, outreach, member services, web, database, education, professional development, etc

2010 Initiatives

- ✦ Successful conference and workshops
- ✦ Successful spring workshops
- ✦ Successful fundraising here
- ✦ Planning for 2011 in St Cloud
- ✦ Revising the By-Laws to meet new federal requirements

2010 Initiatives

- ✦ Database work continues to fulfill the goal of member access to activity info for GISP certification
- ✦ New website design and updates;
 - ◆ Updating outdated info, fixing links
 - ◆ Improving usability
- ✦ Scholarship fund now separate and >$24K

MN GIS/LIS Consortium Scholarship Program needs your help...

The MN GIS/LIS Consortium offers annual scholarship awards to students from Minnesota institutions with qualifying GIS programs.... More info

DONATE NOW

OR

min $10

DONATE NOW

Embed this on your site

give NOV
TO THE MAX DAY 16

“The Great Minnesota Give Together.”

giveMIN.org
click. contribute. create your world.

Scholarship Fund

✦ On Give to the Max Day 2009, Minnesotans gave $14 million to more than 3,400 Minnesota non-profits in 24 hours, becoming the largest on line giving event ever.

Give to the Max day is November 16, two days before GIS day.

Please be active

- ✦ Consider running for an open board position
- ✦ Application sheets at booth, on line
- ✦ Consider volunteering for committee work
- ✦ Volunteer for next year's conference committee

Do I have a motion to close?

