Welcome to the resources and handouts for my 2012 MLA Fantasy RA presentation. I hope you'll find plenty of material to help you help others find great fantasy to read and enjoy.

My folder on Google Docs with book lists and other goodies:

My blog which will have most of the material I cover in the presentation, material from 2011's Science Fiction RA presentation, and other thoughts on Science Fiction & Fantasy (SF&F): <http://librarianinspace.blogspot.com/>

My SF&F Delicious account with links to all sorts of resources:

My question is, where does the red brick road go?
