

Would you like to join the Reader's Advisory Roundtable (RART)
that hosts a Happy Hour at MLA?
(OK we'd like to claim it's all work and no play....)

The Reader's Advisory Round Table is formed as a subunit of the Minnesota Library Association. We provide a forum and an occasion for discussion about adult and young adult books, both fiction and non-fiction.

Our goal is to share techniques and expertise in book talking and on-the-spot reader's advisory service. Every year we host a Reader's Advisory Retreat, sponsor or co-sponsor programs at MLA, plus we host the RART Happy Hour at MLA and produce a newsletter just for RART members.

Join RART subunit of MLA for just $5.00.
