To honor the legacy of James O. Page, the National Association of EMS Educators is honored to hold its annual James O. Page Memorial Award, providing financial support and educational opportunity for an EMS Educator unable to attend the Annual Symposium and Trade Show without financial support.

This special award provides:

Travel arrangements to attend the 20th Annual Educator Symposium and Trade Show (up to $400.00)
Three nights of accommodations at the Omni Nashville in Nashville, TN
Symposium Registration (Pre or Post Conferences Not Included)

Eligibility:

Applications must be submitted no later than June 30, 2015.
This scholarship is exclusively available for members of the National Association of EMS Educators.
Qualified applicants must be active EMS Educators who meet the limitations for financial assistance.
Applications will be stripped of all personal identifiers when they are reviewed by NAEMSE Recognition Committee on the following criteria:
- Active Involvement in EMS Education
- Financial Dependency
- Commitment to Emergency Services
- Benefits to the Applicant, their Students, Institution and Community

Applications must be submitted electronically to naemse@naemse.org.

Questions? Please contact Nora Davidson at naemse@naemse.org or call 412-343-4775 ext 23. Applicants will be acknowledged. If you do not hear from us, please confirm that your submission was received.

NOMINATIONS ARE NO LONGER BEING ACCEPTED.