Job Title: Geriatric Social Worker, MSW

Position Summary:
Role of Geriatric Social Worker is to work effectively with Holocaust Survivors who require case management to successfully age in place. This position will focus on providing holistic services through a trauma informed practice model. The social worker must present as warm, tolerant and eager to support this vulnerable population.

Principal Responsibilities:
Specifically focusing on the Holocaust Survivor population:
- Perform case management services to include assisting clients with financial assistance, applying for benefits, housing, information and referral, end of life planning and other services all using trauma informed practice model.
- Conduct client intakes in the home, main office, and at satellite locations.
- Develop and organize socialization events.
- Work effectively with partner agencies as well as other organizations that provide assistance to Holocaust Survivors.
- Demonstrate cultural sensitivity.
- Complete applications for assistance, maintain appropriate paperwork, and database input (i.e. AWARDS).
- Manage a large case load of 200-300 annually

Competencies:
Client focused, ethics and integrity in approach to interventions, professional knowledge and expertise, adaptability and flexibility, planning and organizing.

Skill and Education:
- Qualifications: LMSW or LCS, -SIFI eligible preferred.
- Education and/or Experience: LMSW, experience with geriatric social work preferred.
- Computer/IT Skills: PC literate with working knowledge of Word and other software programs.

Success Criteria and Measurements:
- Works effectively to mitigate client crises.
- Maintain cultural sensitivity and ask question when they are unknowledgeable.
- Managing a large case load.
- Uses social work ethics to support client and system needs.