Summer Work Environment: Working in the Heat

Tuesday, May 15, 2018 (1:00 PM CT)

30 minutes | Complimentary | Advance registration required

As we move from spring to summer, many of us are thrilled to enjoy the summer heat and sunshine while it lasts! That same heat, however, can have catastrophic or even deadly consequences if not managed properly by employees working in it every day. This webinar will discuss the risk factors aligned with extreme heat conditions, how to identify heat-related illness, and training to help employees make good decisions while working in the heat.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

- Owners/Operators
- HR Professionals
- Risk Managers
- Operations Managers

KEY DISCUSSION POINTS

- Which workers are at risk and why
- Heat Illness Development and Risk Levels
- Heat Illness Prevention
- Planning and resources to keep employees safe

After registering, you will receive a confirmation e-mail and calendar appointment.
