A Special Membership Offer for Members-In-Transition

SAHRA membership is required to attend MIT meetings and receive the benefits they provide. To make this expense accessible for those out of work, the following special offer is extended:

Phase 1 – First Six Months:

- Six months of membership will be granted without charge to MIT members, (for example, for those signing up April 1, 2012, membership through September 30th, 2012.)
- Each MIT member will volunteer for SAHRA, when available, at the SAHRA office or at a SAHRA function to offset the cost of our association fees, and the volunteer hours will be tracked by the MIT Team Leads and submitted to SAHRA

Phase 2 – Second Six Months:

- If still out of work, an MIT member will be charged $70 for the next six months of membership.
- When an MIT member finds work, they will join SAHRA at the full annual rate (minus $70 if they have already paid for the six months).
- After 12 months, a Member-in-Transition member will join SAHRA for the full annual membership price.

I accept the terms of this special offer of membership for MIT members.
