SHRM-Atlanta Pegasus Awards of Excellence in Human Resources Recipients Announced

ATLANTA (March 30, 2016) – The recipients of the 2016 SHRM-Atlanta Pegasus Awards of Excellence in Human Resources, presented by TalentQuest, were announced at the 26th Annual SHRM-Atlanta HR Conference on March 30, 2016. These awards recognize HR individuals and teams that challenge convention and push the boundaries of human resources by creating positive change that results in a significant ROI for their organization.

The 2016 winners included:

Individual Category:

Gail Tolbert, Rubicon Global

Lisa Chang, AMB Group

Carlton Burroughs, ADP

Department Category:

Fulton County Personnel Department

Rural Sourcing Inc. HR Team

WestRock HR Team

Student Category:

Krystle Carter, Clayton State University

The SHRM-Atlanta Pegasus Awards provide a platform to celebrate HR greatness and promote positive change in Atlanta companies. Through these awards, SHRM-Atlanta honors leaders and departments for their hard work, entrepreneurial spirit, vision, inspirational leadership and innovation, as well as showcases the profound impact that HR can have on business results. “Recognizing ambitious, passionate and effective HR professionals is such an important aspect of the work that SHRM-Atlanta does,” remarked SHRM-Atlanta CEO Jeanne Artime. “It’s such a joy to celebrate these individuals and companies, and to do so at the annual conference, the most important annual gathering for HR professionals in Atlanta, is a wonderful opportunity!”

Award nominations are solicited from CEOs, partners, peers, SHRM-Atlanta members and others who want to recognize an HR individual or department that is changing the way we work. Adds Artime, “We look forward to future compelling nominations for our Pegasus Awards in 2017, as we continue to focus on recognizing key achievements in our industry, stories that inspire, and showcasing organizations that prioritize its people and their successes.”
