

CAST 2017 Proposal Scoring Rubric

Scoring Categories: Score 1-5 (5 is highest)

- Description of Workshop: Proposal contains clear, well written language with easily identifiable session outcomes including how teachers/students will benefit
- Instructional Rigor: Proposal reflects proficiency oriented methods of instruction and/or assessment.
- Proposal aligns with TEKS: Specific TEKS listed and limited to the most appropriate, or TEKS are not applicable for this session and it is clearly made evident
- Professional Development: Proposal conveys new developments, innovative instructional techniques and/or effective methods for improving science instruction and assessment.
- Appropriate to Grade Level—Session content and materials are appropriate for the suggested audience

Categories	Score: 4: addresses all criteria 5: exceeds expectations	Score: 3: adequately addresses criteria	Score: 2: addresses criteria with substantial weaknesses 1: does not adequately address criteria
Description of Workshop	Proposal contains clear, well written language with easily identifiable session outcomes including how teachers/students will benefit	The description is adequate.	The description is lacking identifiable session outcomes. The description is unclear.
Proposal Aligns with TEKS	Specific TEKS listed and limited to the most appropriate, or TEKS are not applicable for this session and it is clearly made evident.	General standards are listed with no defined connection to the session or there are too many standards for a focused session.	There are no standards listed and no evidence that shows standards are not needed.
Professional Development	Proposal conveys new developments, innovative instructional techniques and/or effective methods for improving science instruction and assessment.	Common Practice	Counter Productive
Appropriate to Grade Level	Content, equipment and materials match target, appropriately challenges audience, and applicable to grade level	Workshop is appropriate for suggested audience or grade level	Content, equipment, and/or materials are not suitable for the addressed audience and/or grade level