AT A GLANCE

A mid-point of the Peninsula and center of the high-tech industry, Redwood City provides wonderful weather and a tight knit community. Home to the San Mateo County History Museum and Oracle, you can take a look into our past and a glimpse into the future. With plenty to see and do, spend your day eating "As fresh as it Gets" cuisine, shopping, and enjoying the downtown evening concerts.

TRANSPORTATION

Catch Caltrain in the heart of downtown Redwood City for easy accessibility to Palo Alto, San Francisco, and the greater Peninsula.

RECREATION & ENTERTAINMENT

Redwood City offers an exciting downtown square filled with outdoor shows, a movie theatre, and Fox Theatre where you can dance the night away or see your favorite comedian. During the day check out the Peninsula's oldest and largest farmers market that was started in 1979. If you are looking to get out of the city feel, enjoy a scenic walk through Edgewood Park and Preserve or any of the other natural reserves throughout the area.
